

I have had both phone lines listed on the do not call list since inception. I am still getting faxes regularly, using my ink, calling the the middle of the night etc. From health, stock market, etc. I am so tired of it, and it's a pain to call each one and be taken off their list. I did it for one and got three more faxes from the same co. Frustrating.